Getting Involved

Today's event was sponsored by the Islamic Council of Ohio (ICO) which was established in 1985. ICO is a non-profit organization working to serve the interests of Ohio's Muslim communities.

Since its inception, activities of the ICO have included:

- Representing Ohio's Muslim community at the national, state and local levels
- Serving as a unified voice to our elected and public officials
- Serving as the authorized religious organization to state organizations and agencies
- Holding statewide events such as the celebration of Islamic Day in Ohio
- Participating in interfaith activities
